

Sneak Peek: DD Form 214 Series

Did You Know?

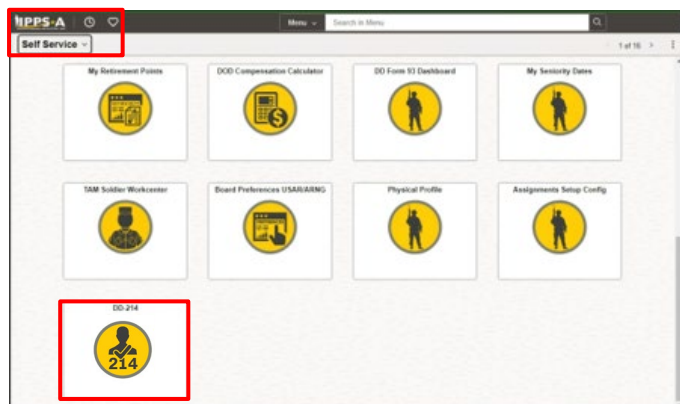

The FY20 National Defense Authorization Act, Sections 569-570 of Public Law 116-92, directed the Department of Defense to:

- 1) Modify the DD Form 214, "Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty," to be machine readable and electronically transferable and include a specific block for Members to provide one or more email addresses for contacting purposes
- 2) Establish and implement a standard record of service for members of the Reserve component

What are We Doing About it?

The DD Form 214/214-1 Series is coming to IPPS-A! Members and HR Professionals will be able to access the forms for review, corrections, and more efficient and accurate completion. Development is still underway in the system, but here is a sneak peek to provide instructions, explain changes, and get user feedback.

DD Form 214 Self-Service versus HR Professional Access

With the new DD Form 214 integration, Members (Self-Service) may review and initiate corrections to their DD Form 214 during the entire transition process.

With the new DD Form 214 integration, HR Professionals may review, complete and finalize Members' DD Form 214s ensuring accuracy and decreased processing times.

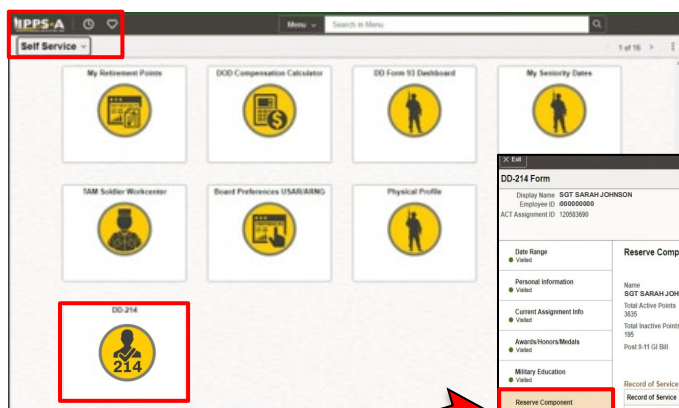

Version 4.0 202500415

Learn more at: <https://ipps-a.army.mil/>

Note: All imaging subject to change upon delivery

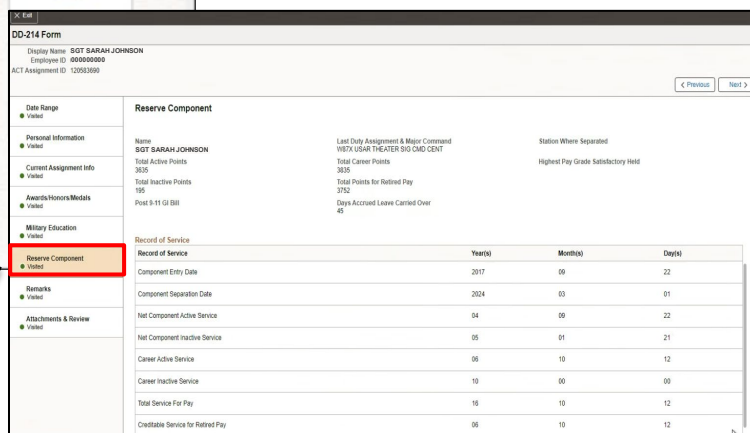

The DD Form 214-1, “Certificate of Uniformed Service, Reserve Component Addendum,” captures all Selected Reserve periods. Army National Guard (ARNG) and U.S. Army Reserve (USAR) Members who separate from their component while in a Reserve status or transfer to Individual Ready Reserve (IRR), will receive the DD Form 214-1 along with the standard DD Form 214.

DD Form 214-1 ARNG/USAR Self-Service View

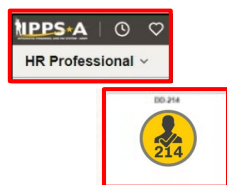

With the new DD Form 214-1 integration, ARNG/USAR (Self-Service) Members may review and initiate corrections to their DD Form 214-1 during the entire transition process.

For USAR/ARNG Members, the DD Form 214-1 displays in the navigation panel, as “Reserve Component.”

Record of Service	Year(s)	Month(s)	Day(s)
Component Entry Date	2017	09	22
Component Separation Date	2024	03	01
Net Component Active Service	04	09	22
Net Component Inactive Service	05	01	21
Career Active Service	09	10	12
Career Inactive Service	10	00	09
Total Service For Pay	16	10	12
Creditable Service for Retired Pay	06	10	12

DD Form 214-1 HR Professional View

With the new DD Form 214-1 integration, HR Professionals may review, complete and finalize Members' DD Form 214-1s ensuring accuracy and decreased processing times.

Empl ID	ACT Assignment ID
1	0000000000 120593835
2	0000000000 120595677
3	0000000000 120595721
4	0000000000 120594965
5	0000000000 120594904
6	0000000000 120577280
7	0000000000 120606370
8	0000000000 120606356
9	0000000000 120593773
10	0000000000 119362779
11	0000000000 120050158
12	0000000000 120037191

HR Professionals select applicable criterion from the Search DD Form 214 panel. Once HR Professional selects USAR/ARNG Member, the navigation panel for DD Form 214-1 displays, as “Reserve Component.”

Note: All imaging subject to change upon delivery

For more #IPPSA:

Facebook.com/armyippsa

X.com/IPPSArmy

Instagram.com/usarmy_ippsa

LinkedIn.com/company/ipps-a/

YouTube.com/c/IPPSA

Podcasts on Apple, Spotify and more

https://ipps-a.army.mil

Version 4.0 202500415